HISTORICAL NOTES

The structural material from a building at the Ellis Creek mill was transported to this site in the late 1920' - early 1930's. The chaff sheds were then constructed, supplying local farmers and businesses with their carrying business.

Jack Lindsay operated a stick agency and cream carrier from this premises. This service began in the 1930's from a shed at the rear of the existing building.

Rural supplies were added in 1942. During the 1940's the front façade was added and became an apple packing shed for local farmers.

It is currently operating as a Hardware store and has been since 1953.

DESCRIPTION

There have been successive owners of the property, each adding extensions and renovations.
